Auction Sale

LAA SUGAR CO. Limited.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 29, HOCLOCK NOON.

er misroom, 23 Queen street, are I will sell at Public Auction per of the treasurer, Mr. J. P. on the following certificates of BOR OLAN SUGAR CO. LTD. he secondly assessment, due ed thereon and advertising exampaid on or before the day and

g hertwick 500 many Tanket secretary MINUTESTALL SERVE SEE. William reservements an Whenley IV. GRIVAY CONCERNMENTER BORTH TO COLUMN ASSESS AND Roberts Williams Carnwell Jr. L Silva I. Palk management 102 Shortest .v. 42 Kandick consideration Akwai

J. P. COOKE, Treasurer. September 18, 1900, MS. F. MORGAN, Auctr.

smith

Andrews 11

Married Str.

uction Sale

Plantation Co., Ltd

m, by order of the Treas- October 1, 1900; J. P. Cooke, the following is of stock in the Kihel Planpany, unless the seventh asthe June 1, 1900, delinquent m with interest thereon and ing openses, is paid on or be-day and hour of sale;

Rewett 10

Ltd. ants serie, trustee servere

S. F. MORGAN, Auctr. J. P. COOKE, Treasurer.

optember 5, 1900.

Pampa

es

OLDERS' MEETING.

MEETING OF THE the Hawatian Sugar be held at the rooms of of September, 1900, at 10 ering and acting upon the charter and byng all proceedings taksuch amendments.

> W. M. TEMPLETON, Secretary.

NOTICE

ER HAVING STOCK IN will please call and as the fences red. All bills for pastursettled before the stock is

E TO SPORTSMEN.

NO WILL DE ALLOW-Wa Colony fands.

TRUSTEES.

MOVAL NOTICE.

TER MONDAY, SEPand residence, Beretania maits the Mathelint irs 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., m. Tolophone Main 5614 Corporation Notices.

EWA PLANTATION COMPANY.

THE BOOKS OF THIS COMPANY vill be closed to transfers from Friday. September 21, 1909, to Saturday, September 29, 1900, inclusive. E. D. TENNEY.

WAIMEA SUGAR MILL CO. LIMITED

THE BOOKS OF THIS COMPANY will be closed to transfers from Friday. September 21, 1900, to Saturday, September 29, 1990, inclusive E. D. TENNEY.

Treasuper.

OLAA ASSESSMENT NOTICES.

THE ELEVENTH ASSESSMENT of Olan Sugar Co., Ltd., became due me delinquent August 21st, with July 1, 1900, and is now delinquent.

> THE TWELFTH ASSESSMENT became due August 10, 1900, and will be delinquent October 10, 1904.

THE THIRTEENTH ASSESSMENT became due September 1, 1900, and will be delinquent October 31, 1960.

offices of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., stumbling and nearly falling." Judd building.

J. P. COOKE, Treasurer Glaa Sugar Co., Ltd. remember the time exactly." Honolulu, Sept. 4, 1900. 5641 - 2208

KIHEI ASSESSMENT NOTICES.

THE SEVENTH ASSESSMENT ON Kihei stock became due June 1, 1900, and is now delinquent.

THE EIGHTH ASSESSMENT BEsame due August 1, 1900, and will be felinquent September 30, 1900.

THE NINTH ASSESSMENT BEame due September 1, 1900, and will be lelinquent October 31, 1900.

All of the above are payable at the offices of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd., Judd building.

J. P. COOKE, Ltd.

Honolulu, Sept. 4, 1900. 2208-5641

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC CO., LTD.

November 1, 1900; December 1, 1900,

Duted Honolulu, September 12, 1900. G. R. CARTER, Treasurer of the Hawaiian Electric

ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

Co., Ltd.

WAIALUA AGRICULTURAL CO.

ASSESSMENTS HAVE BEEN CALL- HOW HUSBANDS ed on the assessable stock of this company as to become due and payable at the office of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., on September 15th, 1900, 10 per cent ($16 per share); delinquent October 15th, won't answer for the consequences,"

W. A. BOWEN. Treas. Walaina Agr. Co., Ltd.

NOTICE

AT THE POSTPONED MEETING of The Awini Coffee, Fruit and Stock Co., Ltd., September 8, 1900, the following officers were elected to serve for the next year.

President, G. P. Tulloch. Secretary, Robert Laing. Treasurer, M. V. Rodenhurst, Auditor, James Murry. Kohala, September 14, 1900. ROBERT LAING, Secretary.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AND SHAKES OF CORPORATION STOCK AT AUCTION

RARE CHANCE FOR CAPITALISTS AND INVESTORS.

By order of Henry Smith, Esq., who fesires to change the form of his in-restments, the undersigned will expose for sale at Public Auction at his salesof that day for the purtember 26, 1900, the following pieces or parcels of land and shares of stock, viz: REALTY.

1. Land on makai side of King street Ewa side of Catholic Cemetery, lately vacated by James Carty, being lot 4 of L. C. A. 706; has 96 feet frontage on King street, 160 feet depth, and contains 14-100 of an acre, more or less. Pos-seasion to be given immediately. 2. Two pieces of land in Kalauao, Ews, Oahu, being apanas 1 and 2 of L. A. 6156E, both containing 12.72 chains, kula and wet land, more or less, leased to Chin Wo Company for $30.00 per annum, rent payable in advance, ast rent collected July 1, 1900. Has about seven years more to run. Torms for the above fifty per cent ash, fifty per cent on mortgages for bree years at seven per cent. CORPORATION SHARES.

Fourteen shares Waimanalo Sugar shawl. company stock, par value, $100 each. and huffy, and her eyes grew pink, and over his splendid resistive powers when Forty shares Mutual Tel. Company then he got madder and went out, by he gets down in the mouth, for no man stock, par value $10 each.

Wayaon will be at the to real estate are perfect.

For further particulars enquire of JAMES F. MORGAN. Muctioneer and Broker.

SCORED LIQUOR; CORNERED GIN

and shooting case was given in the you to say about that?" Judge Wilcox. Dr. Averdam, manager of the Pacific Guano and Fertilizer Company was put on the stand by the defense. Scarcely half an hour was spent in examining this witness and then the defense rested their case. The case will be argued on Friday after-

On direct examination Dr. Averdam testified to a conversation he had re-

Did Wahlers tell you that one of the Japanese, who had rushed up onto the platform just before the shooting on pull him down?" asked attorney Kin- Wahlers.

"The carpenter told me that he saw one of the Japanese catch Spencer by All of the above are payable at the the coat and so pull him that he was

> "When did Wahlers tell you this?" "Within the last few days, I don't

"Where did he tell you?" "Once in the street, when we conversed in German, and once in Mr. Kinney's office in answer to my questions, when we tasked in English."

"You know that the carpenter is very deaf, do you not?" "Yes."

"You are sure that he perfectly understood what your questions were?" "Yes, I am sure."

SPILNER'S LETTER.

"You remember receiving letters from Spliner while he was on Laysan Island?"

"How about these statements?" and Kinney read portions of Spilner's writings, as follows:

 * But now, doctor, excuse me if I write you something which perhaps is wrong. You are losing here very much money if it goes on like this Treasurer Kihei Plantation Co., much longer. Whenever this manager is drunk, which happens very often, he land and did not return it to him." gives the laborers for half an hour a day extra. In such condition he does not know what he is doing. two men for fishing, and whenever his so borrowed $20 from him." wife goes out to look for shells they have to go with her. The Japanese October 1, 1900; like to ask you for a favor. In case ner to buy liquor."

THIRD assessment of 25 per cent, that Captain Spencer should not come back. I should like to ask you to send "Sandpaper gin, so the carpenter says. Spilner bought about five bottles" I like it very well here and should like of it for himself." very well to remain here always. I do not need a cook in case my wife should written you complaining of Spencer's come over."

"That is all wrong!" said Dr. Averdam.

ABOUT A BIRDCAGE.

property of the company, and refers to company, and had always proved himthe Captain using a sleve out of which self a man of the highest character.

ACT WHEN ILL

"Well, if she treats him like that I

"For my part I think she is a very tender, devoted wife, and he's a surly brute," retorted Miss Emily. "The par-titions are so thin I couldn't help hear-

TO BE HANDLED WITH GLOVES.

Emily Lonely sat gossiping.

the doctor.

The last testimony in the Laysan Isi- to manufacture a birdcage. What have

"Captain Spencer had no right to de-Police Court yesterday afternson before stroy a sieve for the purpose of making a birdcage, but he was the manager of the Island; we gave him full power to do what he though was best." "Did you consider it destroying your property?

"I had told the Captain to send me back some birds from Laysan Island when he could do so. When he came back on the Ceylon he brought them with him, and I suppose he found it lescing lord is to yield her point in arnecessary to use the sieve to make a gument. Now, I don't mean a high and I am well satisfied with what the Captain has done."

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

High Sheriff Brown then questioned that Saturday, August 11, grabbed the doctor on various points, particuhold of Captain Spencer and tried to larly in regard to the old carpenter,

> "Did you send the carpenter to Laysan Island?"

"Did he do his work well, and to the satisfaction of the company?" "He did fairly well."

"What were his relations with Spil-Friendly as far as I knew, although now they do not seem to be very good friends. "Did the carpenter ever have anything to say against Captain Spencer?" ing the big class in matrimony." "No; not that I know of." "Did he ever write against Captain Spencer, to the firm?"

No. Wahlers would testify untruthfully in court against Captain Spencer?"

THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

On the re-direct examination Attorney Kinney brought out one of the the whole case. It seemed that Spilner, Today is the all-important issue. most interesting pieces of testimony in the daptain's "friend," who had written with to purchase spirits from the ships. Why is it that the carpenter and Spliner are not such good friends?" said

Kinney. "Spilner borrowed $20 from the car-

Why did he borrow the money?" "He has two Japanese in his house, then at the Island, but had no money,

"How did you find this out?" woman does nothing. I do not know gold, and asked him, on his return here, judicious investments and little trad-THE FOLLOWING ASSESSMENTS what he has done in winter. Everything what he had done with it. He asked what he had done with it. He asked me for some money and I wanted to have been levied upon the assessable stock of this Company, as to become "I have learned everything from him the had done with the $20. The great secret of success is laying by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and adding to your little by a nest egg and addin due and payable at the office of the Ha- so far and can get along very well, and He has a family ashore here, is old and

> "Sandpaper gin, so the carpenter to better himself. "And at the same time Spilner had drunkenness?" Sheriff Brown asked one or two questions on re-cross-examination. Dr. the minute and not one second later. Averdam said that Spilner's letter was He does not do more than he has to do "In another letter Spillner speaks of a great surprise to him. Captain Spen- and doesn't do that well. Then there Captain Spencer's destruction of the cer had the absolute confidence of the is the man who arrives ahead of time > and I've been all through it with my lived within my means, and always John. Did I ever tell you about the time that John Matrimenial Bits, Esq., principals I have constantly obeyed is: banker, broker, after-dinner speaker, and retired warrior, came down with the German measles?"

Miss Emily shock her head. he ever was the victim of so pesky a lated a hundred millions, more or less, little ailment, but sometimes, when he is in the least inspiring. It dazzles; it October 36th, 1900, 10 per cent ($10 per cen her head solemnly at the Pacific Ocean, neds across the table at me and I say inspire him for a time, but that inspirwith a sort of a break in my voice, 'Oh, ation soon wears off. It is not possible kiki veranda on which she and Miss Jack, don't talk of it,' and he leaves for one to follow in the footsteps of anthe impression with his appreciative other. Each must work out his own male listeners that he has faced worse destiny. things than San Juan Hill.

WHEN THE CRISIS CAME. and then his language became perfectly an entirely sociable creature he seemed months. Men are such treacherous that the street had cold feet. creatures. Sometimes one does appre-"The last familiar phase that always ciate one's dignified independence," and leads to some sort of an attack with Miss Emily gave her water color ver- my husband is when he, as mild a man sien of his majesty the Pacific a moon as ever paid bills or dismissed tipsy deal of some water caused by men that looked like a white celluloid poker cooks, began to, excuse me, Miss Emily, deal of sorrow has been caused by men to damn things. Then I knew John was who insisted on meddling with a game Mrs. Bliss laughed cheerily. "He isn't ill, and the crisis came when he got into about which they knew nothing. brute, Miss Emily. He's just a little a perfectly towering rage with the end "Finally false pride is an enormous run down, poor young man, and his of a palm leaf that tickled his nose obstacle. I know young men in New confiding, adoring, pretty little wife while he was reading his paper. I apol-evidently hasn't got far enough along ogized for and removed the palm, and in her knowledge of the sex to realize when the racking headache developed I that there is a mighty big difference lightly suggested the hot weather, a in the best methods of taking care of a touch of possible malaria, and invited afraid that they might meet some girl sick woman and a sick man. Now, we the doctor in to tea.

all know that a woman wants to be "Well, the long and short of it was coddled and cuddled, petted and fussed John spent four days in bed, and I ever when she is iii. She grows quite bundled off the children and covered fond of her medicines, loves to be tuck- myself with glory trying to keep my ed up among pillows and discuss her lord in spirits and at the same time descendingly, "Confucius was a very symptoms, and speak in a still, small in his room. We never once let on it famous man." voice and make large, pathetic eyes of was measles—that would have hurt his "And a yer a suffering gazelle at her relations and dignity; so the doctor and I talked on a basis of incipient typhoid, brought on satellite, bowing three times. by overwork, and alarmed him into "And a very wise one," cont obedience, while I kept up his courage "But there are some smart things that "If there is one insult that a man more acutely resents than another," by wondering at his superb constitu-tion. Poor Jack! He was scared into of." Mrs. Bliss continued, "it is illness, and fits at the sight of his temperature, for, he deeply objects to being reminded of He knows that he is then unman- man like, once persuaded he is ill, he glooms over the future, and I could ned and more or less an object of easily have given him a serious setback cited that he forgot to bow three times by watching him with pained, anxious until Li hit him with a jeweled bung- Ruhlen), containing parlor, diningeves, by tiptoeing around the room, starter, which he keeps for that purroom, five bedrooms, bathroom, etc. amused pity to his own sex, so a sick husband must be handled with gloves, it is wifely tact that tides him over and that is what our little friend should him to eat, hushing all normal, familiar he died long before I was made an hearn. She really is nainfully obtuse. Last night she tried to put her white sounds and begging him every ten minutes to tell me how he felt. shawl about his big, broad shoulders, made him change his seat, because she

HOW TO MANAGE A SICK MAN. "Treatment of that sort drives a man suspected that he was in a draught, and reminded him of his pills right be- either in a rage, out of his bed, or puts fore all the other men. Do you wonder him into alternate nervous chills and he used winged words, that is to say, fevers of sheer fright. The proper direct colloquial language; though be- nursing for one's husband is to make ing newly married he spoke in a tone his sick room look cheerful and agree- which shows that a jeweled bungstart-only she could hear and complied with able, walk around as if there was noth- er is always a good thing to have all her requests, except the use of the ing to be afraid of, and speak in a around a palace.—Washington Star.

way of revenge, and stamped up and likes his constitution to be impugned One share Hamoa Sugar Company down the wet beach, reveling, no doubt, any more than his honesty and cour-stock, par value $100.

Rector Goodluk—There, I've been wondering how I'd get the money to him that, western trip, this summer, Terms, cash for shares. Deeds and ing her hands on the plazza and long- though it suffers terrible strains, it take that western trip this summer. stamps at expense of purchasers. Ti- ing to rush out, but her pride and fear comes out always ahead, you can flatter and now I've just had my salary raisof his manly wrath held her at bay." and stimulate him to his great benefit. ed! Isn't that fortunate?"

"And you think that's kind and ten- When the time comes for the nasty Parson Hardupp- Fortunate! I hon-gle and more language and facial contortions, assure him you don't see how he does it, that, being a woman, you would faint over the ordeal, and then he lies back, feeling himself strong, even in his weakness. "As to feeding a sick husband, I don't think there is a bigger mistake than to pester him with requests as to what he would like, to wail at his loss of appetite and to get up untempting invalid dishes. Men are sociable creatures, and if John is taking any solid food at all I dine and lunch and tea and breakfast with him. If I eat with him he doesn't feel as if he were being dieted, and, to tell you the truth, barring a few really injurious things that the doctors may put on the menu expurgatorious, I always feed my sick man on the best and most various the market can afford. We've had some really jolly meals on the counterpane.

YIELDING GRACEFULLY.

"The last and most precious sacrifice a wife can make to her ill or convaeage for the birds. The birds were for noble fortitude when he grows absurd- ()N MONDAY, SEPT. 24, 1900 ly angry over some foolish trifle, or a pained Christian silence when he concently had with Wahlers, the carpen-ter, concerning the shooting affair on lutely nothing in Spilner's complaints his medicine. That attitude irritates, but I mean when he takes some strange but harmless notion into his head, contrive if possible to let him have his way, and when anything must be talked over yield to him the rich and rare delight of accepting his view. Yield slowly, for he will want to thoroughly enjoy the sweets of victory, but yield nevertheless, and in after days you can resume your old, original, obstinate posi-> our little friend out there, moping so tearfully under the lawn tent." "Oh, she will find it out by and by. assured Mrs. J. M. Bliss, rising with hungry alacrity. "There is no school for sharpening women's wits like join-

HOW TO GET ON IN THE WORLD Have you any reason to believe that Pointers Given by the Late Collis P. Huntington.

"Appreciate the value of today," he said. "That's my advice to young men. lars of It has been my rule through life-I am nearing the century mark now-not to look forward, for the future is a blank.

"I have never gone against the tide, so strongly against the use of liquors nor worried while my schemes were on the Island in his letter to Averdam, maturing. A farmer sows a field of had, as a matter of fact, borrowed wheat. To worry over it would merely money from the old carpenter where- sap his energy. The wheat requires his attention at the harvest. When I was a boy on my father's farm in Connecticut, I worked hard, utilizing every moment, for there was plenty to do. Independence Park, the home of Compenter while they were on Laysan Is- But if I had any spare time I did chores rade and Mrs. Wright, Saturday evenfor the neighbors. I picked apples or ing, September 22, 1900. did anything that added to my savings. All sojourning comrades, veterans of The carpenter told me that Spliner I never wanted for anything I needed; the Civil War, Army and Navy Union wanted to buy liquor from the ship I always got it. But very many buy then at the Island, but had no money, things they do not need. When I came things they do not need. When I came ent. to New York, in 1836, I had quite a sum "I had given the carpenter the $20, in of money-the result of my savings store, never spending more than you Honolulu, I will sell at SECOND assessment of 25 per cent, every respect. Now Doctor, I should told me he had lent the money to Spil- make and being strictly economical. what he is worth and always endeavor (Wednesday) evening, September 19, at to better himself

"I have had a hundred thousand people in my employ in different parts of the world at the same time. In my sojourning brethren are fraternally inmercantile life I have noticed the man vited to attend. who arrives at his post on time and not one minute later, and who leaves on and works late if need be. The latter takes an interest in his work and is anxious to be advanced. I have always principle I have constantly obeyed is: 'Business before pleasure.' The chances are as good today as they ever werethey are even better. But I do not "He doesn't dream to this day that think the life of one who has accumu-

"A young man does not want to both- partnership through his collector. er over what rumor says about him. I "That summer I knew Jack was have never cared a cent what any huing when he said something about a droopy when he began running down man being thought or said about me or devilish bore, and she replied in the the cook, but I didn't suggest there my action so long as I was satisfied. gentlest way, 'Dear, you aren't well,' was any loss of appetite. From being It is my idea that a man's business awful. I simply put my fingers in my to find pleasure in sitting alone and should be his first thought. It has alears, I can't help thinking how in the glowering a good deal, and when I aspast few days all her ideals must have sumed a more cheerful air than usual pose there are a great many things become shattered by his behavior, and he tried to explain himself by saying, about which I know less than the averthey have only been married two in the weird vernacular of down town, age man, but on the other hand I am very certain that there is nobody who

that they knew."

AN ORIENTAL EPISODE.

"Yes," said Li Hung Chang, con-

"And a very good one," said the "And a very wise one," continued Li.

The satellite murmured "Is it possible?" He was so embarrassed and ex-

Earl."

"He did illustrious one." "Therefore it was quite impaible ditional $1,200.

impossible!" The satellite laughed long and loud, mation,

-0-THE WAY OF SOME MEN.

Rector Goodluk-"There, I've been der and noble and "-began Miss Emily dose allow him to dedicate it with all Lonely in wrathful amaze.

"No. Miss Emily." chuckled Mrs. It helps him, he thinks, and then, when Bliss; "but it's masculine and natural, it goes down with a whosp and a gur- heaven!"

At Auction

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

UPON THE PREMISES

I will sell at Auction that valuable tion, and he won't contest it with you."

"It's a pity." remarked Miss Emily Lonely, "that you couldn't give some of that really sensible advice of yours to 55 feet on King street. 74 feet on River street. 38 feet on Hotel street.

Containing about 6,400 square feet. Leasehold has fifteen years and ten-months to run from September 1st, at a monthly rental of $35 per month.

Also the adjoining CORNER, RIVER and KING STREETS, size 20 x 50. Terms cash. Conditions as per lease. Diagram at office. Further particu-

WILL E. FISHER,

AUCTIONEER.

Attention, G. A. R.

THE ANNUAL CAMPFIRE OF George W. De Long Post will be held at

W. L. EATON, P. C.,

chairman Invitation Committee.

THERE WILL BE A REGULAR Again, a young man should command convention of the above lodge this WORK IN THE FIRST RANK.

By order C. C., S. J. Salter. A. E. MURPHY, P. C. K. of R. and S.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Dr. C. B. COOPER having this day formed a partnership with Dr. J. T. M'DONALD, formerly of San Francisco, the firm of Drs. Cooper & McDonald will carry on the practice, occupying the offices formerly used by Dr. Cooper.

OFFICE HOURS: Dr. Cooper-8:30 to 10 a. m., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Dr. McDonald-10 a. m. to 2 p. m., 7 to Sundays-Dr. Cooper, 8:30 to 10 a. m.;

September 17, 1900.

Dr. Cooper will present all bills incurred prior to the formation of the

THE STOCK LEDGER OF THE Oahu Railway and Land Company will be closed to transfers September 18th to 20th, inclusive

M. P. ROBINSON, Treasurer. Honofulu, Sept. 17, 1900.

FIREWOOD,

CORRUGATED IRON. SASH, DOORS, BLINDS, WINDOW FRAMES and all kinds of BUILDING MATERIAL for sale, in lots to suit, cheap.

Enquire at the ARLINGTON HOTEL PREMISES.

FOR SALE ON EASY TERMS

ONE AND ONE-HALF STORY house, corner of Victoria and Green streets (occupied at present by Major Land 100 x 70 feet, with one-half of 10 feet right of way. Price $7,000.

with small cottage, adjoining, for adfor him to remark that I am | Earl | Parties looking for a homestead in a Li bird who catches the worm quite quiet neighborhood should call on AR-THUR HARRISON for further infor-

If required, can add land 50 x 70 feet

AT THE GAZETTE OFFICE.